Mr. Winterrowd,

It seems under the circumstances, the best thing to do would be to put the responses to discovery, and any other documents you have, in the mail today. Hopefully we will receive it by Friday.

I agree the oil issue is a problem, we are all feeling the "crunch".

I started to Wasilla yesterday afternoon and stopped by the Post Office at mile 7 on Knik Goose Bay Road in my van and picked up the mail. My van then quit working - the transmission, so I didn't get to Wasilla to get the notary done in time after I had a mechanic friend get the van to his shop and get me back home. I drive the van as it gets 20 mile/gallon and is much cheaper than my older diesel in fuel costs. Anyway, I will get this done today and then either mail it or drive it to Anchorage - takes me about $40 in fuel to go to Anchorage any more with the increased costs - especially now that diesel is about 50 cents more per gallon than unleaded regular gas.

Why don't you use the influence of that AG and get the Governor and Legislators into fixing the problem. It was on the news yesterday that the inflated costs are due to speculators you jack up the price about 70%, so according to the news and the person that was testifying in front of Congress the cost of oil per barrel should be about $40.

I have several experts that know this for a fact, so what is the problem with the legislators and Congress - participating in the pecuniary benefits?

Chief Justice Marshall, in the course of the debates of the Virginia State Convention of 1829--1830 (pp. 616, 619), used the following strong and frequently quoted language:

'The Judicial Department comes home in its effects to every man's fireside; it passes on his property, his reputation, his life, his all. Is it not, to the last degree important, that he should be rendered perfectly and completely independent, with nothing to influence or control him but God and his conscience? * * * I have always thought, from my earliest youth till now, that the greatest scourge an angry Heaven ever inflicted upon an ungrateful and a sinning people, was an ignorant, a corrupt, or a dependent Judiciary.'

In a very early period of our history, it was said, in words as true to-day as they were then, that 'if they (the people) value and wish to preserve their Constitution, they ought never to surrender the independence of their judges.' O'Donoghue v. United States, 289 U.S. 516, 532 (1933).

Ms. Anderson:

I do not have the discovery that was supposedly sent as it was never sent. I require it. I got a small package that was a joke.

I will be filing in a motion to compel and if need be, sanctions.

I will be filing in a motion for an extension of the close of Discovery for a minimum of 3 months as it is obvious that the SOA will not cooperate in any manner with any essential discovery and this will probably require going back to the 9th on an interlocutory as Singleton will not assist me regardless of the rules probably.
